

www.oilview.de

www.tecson.de

Oil-View

is a remote system for monitoring and managing oil tanks inventories.

The System is base on data messaging by the LX-GSM or LX-Q-GSM measuring devices at the tanks location.

The OilView system is database web-server which provides save access via private login und access level management.

By web browser at a PC or smart phone you may get access to the data presentation of your tanks and stations.

OilView functions:

- Remote displaying of the current tank inventories and station status.
- Monitoring an controlling of alarms and level limints and short falling.
- Monthly reports.
- Charts u. grafical presentation of the data.
- Export of inventory data in Excel format.

Free trial

- Use the DEMO button at www.oilview.de

